

MEMBERSHIP

The membership of The American-Scandinavian Foundation plays a vital role in the Foundation's mission. Across the U.S. and abroad, more than 6,000 members and supporters provide a primary constituency for the Foundation and its programs.

Since the opening of Scandinavia House in October 2000, over 1,600 new members nationwide have joined the Foundation and continue to actively participate in the many programs offered at the dynamic new cultural center. Members of the Foundation enjoy free access to the Scandinavia House galleries, film reservation privileges, and discounts in The Shop and at events presented at Scandinavia House. All members receive subscriptions to the Foundation's lively and insightful journal, Scandinavian Review, and its quarterly newsletter, SCAN, which announces ASF-sponsored events throughout the United States.

In the greater New York area, ASF members are invited to exclusive previews for all art and design exhibitions at Scandinavia House, and each year special events are held to welcome new and returning members.

The American-Scandinavian Foundation maintains affiliation with 20 independent regional groups that form an autonomous national network. These Scandinavian organizations sponsor activities and programs for their local constituents, many of whom are members of the ASF.

LYNN CARTER

Family Associate Members enjoy the Heimbold Family Children's Learning Center.

TINA BUCCAMAN

The opening reception for Faces and Figures: Contemporary Photography of Scandinavia was underwritten by Danske Bank A/S, N.Y. Branch. (l-r): Mrs. James M. Stewart; David Morgan, Deputy Manager; Cresta Nielsen, Vice President; and ASF Trustee James M. Stewart, General Manager. The exhibition was also supported by Nordea.

The ASF is grateful to its many members whose support at every level helps to make possible the Foundation's many educational and cultural programs. The ASF offers special thanks to those members whose names are listed below whose category of membership (current as of June 30, 2001) is at the Contributing Associate level or above.
