

MEMBERSHIP

The American-Scandinavian Foundation's members play a central role in the Foundation's mission. Currently there are more than 7,000 members and supporters in the United States and abroad, spanning six continents, with nearly 87 percent located in the U.S. Over the past two years, attracted by many new programs and generous benefits, over 1500 members joined the Foundation.

Members receive many benefits, including subscriptions to the Foundation's journal, Scandinavian Review, and the ASF's quarterly newsletter, Scan. Members are encouraged to participate in ASF-supported events across the United States and they receive special privileges when visiting Scandinavia House in New York, including free gallery admission, discounts in the gift shop, and reduced admission to Nordic films, concerts, lectures, and children's programs. Members enjoy invitations to previews for gallery exhibitions, and festive holiday events during the Christmas season and at Midsummer.

The American-Scandinavian Foundation maintains affiliation with a number of National Associate groups. Each group in this network of 20 independent regional groups across the United States sponsors activities and programs for their local constituents, many of whom are members of the ASF.
